

HOBIT GOSE Assessor Quarterly Meeting - Quiz
June 10, 2020

- 1. The site study coordinator should hold monthly follow-up phone calls with enrolled participants/caretakers:
  - A. Only if they feel the subject may be lost to follow up
  - B. With every subject to maintain contact and establish a rapport

- 2. What should be done during and after the monthly follow-up phone calls?
  - A. Log all calls in WebDCU
  - B. Document new adverse events since last call
  - C. All of the above

- 3. Why are the Quality Assurance Videos/Recordings being performed?
  - A. Ensure the GOSE is done uniformly across sites & train the assessors
  - B. To focus on the subject
  - C. All of the above

- 4. How will feedback be given?
  - A. Email or phone call only if mistakes are found
  - B. Create a DCR if there are required scoring changes (180 day)
  - C. Outcome Central Monitor will change GOSE scores in WebDCU & notify assessor
  - D. All of above

- 5. How long does an GOSE assessor need to be recorded?
  - A. Minimum of 5 assessments
  - B. When no major errors were made on at least one 6-month visit
  - C. All of above

- 6. Regarding scheduling GOSE assessments, the site study coordinator should:
  - A. Let the GOSE assessor set up assessment
  - B. Help arrange visit

- 7. If an assessment cannot be completed within the required windows (30 days, 90 days, and 180 days post-injury):
  - A. You do not have to try to reach the subject/caregiver
  - B. Ask HOBIT leadership for an extension to contact the subject

HOBIT GOSE Assessor Quarterly Meeting - Quiz
June 10, 2020

8. What happens if a subject becomes permanently lost to follow up?

- A. Site will discuss the case during the SIREN Operations call.
- B. Email HOBIT-milestone@umich.edu to be placed on the Operation's meeting agenda.
- C. Other HOBIT personnel will provide strategies to reach the subject prevent loss to F/U
- D. All of above

9. Does permission to record a participant/caretaker have to be captured on the recording?

- A. Yes
- B. No

10. Except when a subject is vegetative, it is imperative that both the subject and an informant be interviewed. True/False

- A. True
- B. False

11. What sources can a GOSE assessor use?

- A. Medical records and the treating team
- B. Participant and caretaker
- C. Primary study coordinator
- D. All of above

12. If the GOSE can't be done with the subject or caretaker, can the assessor do the GOSE with the primary nurse, etc.?

- A. Yes
- B. No

13. If a subject can respond "yes" and "no" to simple questions, but can't follow simple commands, the answer to Q01 is:

- A. Yes
- B. No

14. Subject is unable to say any words or follow commands, the assessor can stop asking questions after answering "No" to Q01.

- A. True
- B. False

HOBIT GOSE Assessor Quarterly Meeting - Quiz
June 10, 2020

15. After collecting all the information from all available sources, the assessor should:

- A. Always score the GOSE based primarily on what the participant said
- B. Always score the GOSE based primarily on what the informant/s said
- C. Use clinical judgement to determine GOSE score based on all info collected

16. What question MUST be asked any time a subject and/or informant says that a subject is unable to do something?

- A. Why
- B. Why
- C. Why
- D. All of above

17. Why is asking “why” so important?

- A. To make sure this isn't the person's baseline
- B. The GOSE requires understanding TBI vs. non-TBI related reasons
- C. To be thorough
- D. All of above

18. From a TBI standpoint, a person could resume her normal work or school schedule and full responsibilities, but has been unable to do so because of COVID-19 restrictions, the assessor should score Q05a as:

- A. Yes
- B. No

19. If a person's only social and leisure activity before the TBI was bowling, but has been unable to bowl since the TBI because the bowling alley has been shut down, the assessor should next:

- A. Score Q06a as “No”
- B. Ask questions whether the subject could bowl if the alley was open, if not, determine why not – tease apart COVID vs physical- vs TBI-related reasons

20. A participant suffers from severe anxiety that is new since the TBI. She has no other psychological issues/problems. Both the participant and the informant state that this anxiety happens nearly daily, but that it does not affect any of her relationships. Item Q07a is scored as:

- A. Yes
- B. No