HOBIT Updates

FDA Approval to Enroll under EFIC

HOBIT has been approved by the FDA to enroll under EFIC (21 CFR 50.24). We are working on EFIC material development, study team training materials, and will plan to hold a HOBIT Virtual Investigator Meeting in November to focus on EFIC. Please keep an eye out for more updates!

New resources available on hobittrial.org

The following resources have been added to the HOBIT website:

⇒ HOBIT Chamber and Subject Log v4 Training PowerPoint
The HOBIT Chamber and Subject Log v4 has been updated to include instructions for calculating the Minute Ventilation. Bill Gossett's Chamber and Subject v4 Training PowerPoint slides are also available. These are available in the HOBIT Toolbox under Chamber Resources.
