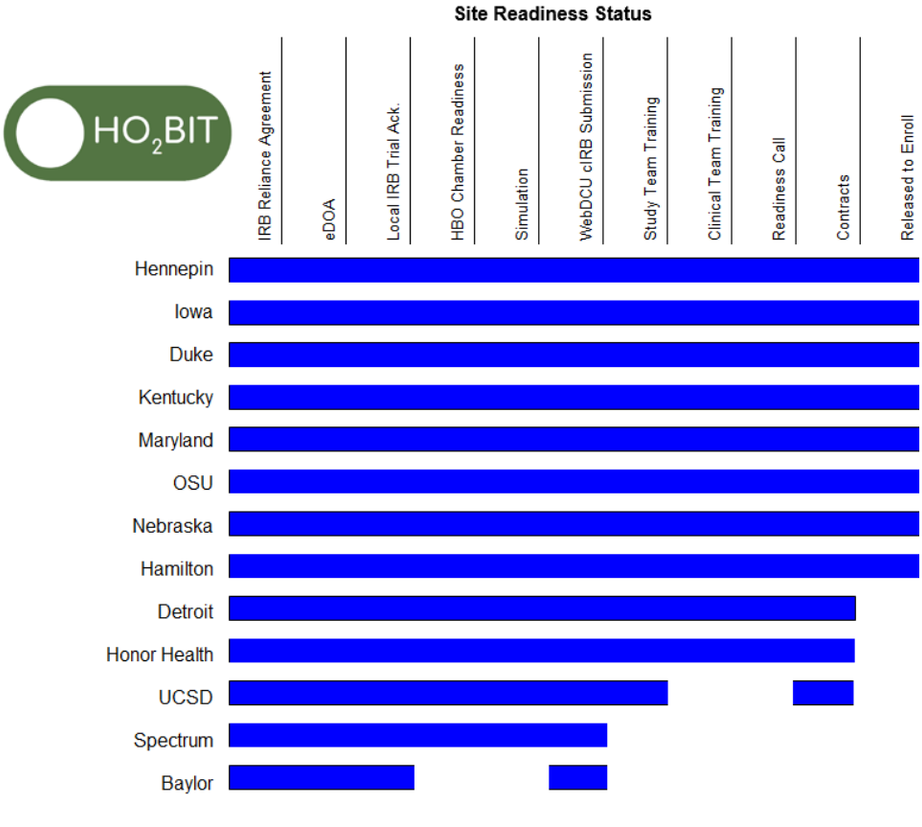
HOBIT Updates

CT Scan Transfer


The image repository is close to being ready to accept CT scans. While we work to finish the final touches, we just want to ask that all sites make sure their eDOA is up to date for CT scan responsibility delegation. 1-3 study members (those responsible for transferring the CT scans to imaging repository) should be assigned this role. User names and passwords will be distributed shortly. We'll be sending more information in the near future about this process.
